

Library Card Art Contest

Design the library's next card!

Submissions due June 30, 2024

Livermore's heritage, viticulture, science and arts form a rich identity and way of life that the library celebrates with the various library card designs that we offer.

In addition to the existing spurs, grapes and Livermorium designs, the library is looking to add a new card design representing the arts in Livermore. Show us what art in Livermore means to you!

- Entries will be accepted at all three Livermore Public Library locations.
- Contest is open to Livermore residents of all ages.
- One entry per person.
- Library staff will select the top ten finalists.
- The Livermore community will select the ultimate winner in a vote during the month of July.
- See entry form for complete rules.

Civic Center Library, 1188 S. Livermore Ave.
Rincon Library, 725 Rincon Ave.
Springtown Library, 998 Bluebell Dr.

Library Card Art Contest

Rules and Waiver

- Use the entry form to create a library card design.
- Submissions may be in any two-dimensional art medium (illustration, pen, paint, crayons, digital, photography, etc.).
- Use the entire space (up to the outer bleed line) on the entry form for your design. Please note that a portion of the design will be cut off around the outside during production up to the final cut lines, represented on the entry form by the arrows.
- Only vertical designs will be considered.
- Limit one (1) entry per person.
- Do not include your name on the design.
- Original artwork only. Designs containing copyright restrictions (popular characters, logos, images, etc.) will not be considered.
- Submitted artwork will not be returned.
- The winning artist must be a Livermore resident.

Library staff will select the top ten (10) finalists. One (1) winner will be chosen by the Livermore community in a vote that will take place from Wednesday, July 17 to Wednesday, July 31. The winning design will be printed on the Livermore Public Library's newest library card.

By entering the contest, artists grant the Livermore Public Library permission to use their artwork for the purposes of the library card design selection process. This includes marketing and reformatting content but is limited to resizing photographs and adding text content to meet the needs of the library card process.
